Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER OF DETENTION

The Court conducted a detention hearing on:

The motion of the Government [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)] in a case allegedly involving:

The motion of the Government or on the Court's own motion [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)] in a case allegedly involving: a serious risk that the defendant will flee.

The Court finds that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure:

the appearance of the defendant as required (as proven by a preponderance of the evidence).

the safety of any person or the community (as proven by clear and convincing evidence).

The Court bases its findings (in addition to any made on the record at the hearing) on the following grounds:

As to risk of non-appearance:

Lack of adequate, reliable and accountable bail resources or financially responsible sureties

Refusal to interview with Pretrial Services

No stable or longstanding residence or employment

Previous failure to appear or violations of probation, parole, or release

Ties to foreign countries

Unrebutted presumption [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

Weight of the evidence

CRIMINAL MINUTES - GENERAL

Case No. 17-MJ-356

Date February 22, 2017

Title United States v. Fernando Rodriguez Lopez

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the defendant be detained until trial. The defendant will be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant will be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel. On order of a Court of the United States or on request of any attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined will deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. [18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)]
